FOGO DE CHÃO OPENS SIXTH METRO D.C. LOCATION AT THE WHARF

Leading Restaurant Brand Debuts its Newest Location at The Wharf with a Community Commitment

WASHINGTON (Nov. 4, 2024) Fogo de Chão, the internationally-renowned restaurant from Brazil known for its elevated churrasco dining experience, opens its newest restaurant in Washington, D.C. on Monday, November 11. The new restaurant is located at 698 Maine Avenue SW at The Wharf, a vibrant waterfront neighborhood with world-class residences, offices, shops and restaurants. The Wharf restaurant is the sixth location in the Metro D.C. area joining other Fogo locations in Penn Quarter, Tysons, North Bethesda, National Harbor and Reston. As part of their introduction to the community, Fogo will donate 10% its first week of sales to their national charity partner No Kid Hungry, an organization that works to end childhood hunger and poverty in the United States and is based in D.C.

Designed in partnership with global design agency Harrison, the new restaurant features an expansive dining room centered around an open churrasco grill, offering guests a 360-degree view of gaúcho chefs demonstrating the Culinary Art of Churrasco by butchering, hand carving, and grilling high-quality cuts of protein, creating a craveable salty bark. The Wharf restaurant also showcases a seasonal Market Table, dry-aged meat lockers for in-house aging, a lively indoor Bar Fogo area ideal for all-day happy hour, and private dining spaces available for guests to reserve for any occasion.

“We look forward to opening at The Wharf soon and bringing the Culinary Art of Churrasco to Fogo fans and new guests seeking an unforgettable dining experience,” said Barry McGowan, Chief Executive Officer of Fogo de Chão. “At Fogo, we’ve always focused on feeding our guests and communities; that’s why we’re excited to collaborate with No Kid Hungry in their home community to continue to provide hunger relief to those in need in the Metro D.C. area and throughout the country.”

Leading The Wharf team is General Manager Wellington de Oliveira, a veteran of Fogo who began his tenure 10 years ago as a Gaúcho Chef at the Jardins location in Sao Paulo, Brazil. Wellington and his team look forward to becoming part of The Wharf community and providing over 100 local jobs for talented individuals committed to delivering an exceptional experience to all guests.
